

DTF Module – Pricing and Efficiency in Competitive Markets
The University of Melbourne, September 23, 2009.
Feedback Results

---

(Response rate: 100%)

Question 1:	YES	NO	NEUTRAL
Was the theoretical component useful? (Total no. of respondents 25)	60%	8%	32%
Question 2:	YES	NO	NEUTRAL
Was the experimental component useful? (Total no. of respondents 25)	92%	0%	8%
Question 3:	YES	NO	NEUTRAL
Was the policy component useful? (Total no. of respondents 25)	84%	8%	8%
Question 4:	YES	NO	NEUTRAL
Was interaction with other participants in the workshop valuable? (Total no. of respondents 25)	84%	0%	16%
Question 5:	YES	NO	NEUTRAL
In your opinion, should the workshop be run again? (Total no. of respondents 25)	92%	0%	8%

Question 6:

What aspects could be improved?

More practical examples/better link to application in policy development.

Expand/provide possible solution where the market does not work.

A Stronger policy focus please.

Any other queries/comments:

Overall, high quality stuff, Thanks

The CAV and water markets presentation strengthened the concepts discussed.

It's always tough to pitch it correctly to an audience with a variety of backgrounds.